

Thank You To All - Singing Day with Bob Chilcott

Enormous thanks to Bob Chilcott and all participants for a wonderful Singing Day yesterday.

It was an absolutely super day, to all join together, and be guided with such inspiration, encouragement and insight from Bob, in singing some of his most uplifting pieces: The Lily and the Rose and his stunningly beautiful and resounding new work: Songs My Heart Has Taught Me.

A truly lovely and rewarding day.

Thank you to everyone, for your time, efforts and voices.

To Richard Wilkins our accompanist, for, as always, being utterly awesome.

And to the excellent team at the venue: St Catherine's Church, Ventnor, whose support was tireless and unstinting, and whose refreshment service was outstanding.
