

Poppy Gallerwood

Poppy began singing at a very young age, competing in the Isle of Wight Music, Dance and Drama Festival, while having lessons with Millie Bull.

She continued to sing in school choirs with support from Mrs Grubb, Mr Hutchins, Mrs Lambert and Mrs Tweddle, which helped grow her love for music.

When she was 14 years of age, she started singing with Linda Filby-Borrett which opened up more opportunities; including singing with The Voices of the Isle of Wight, at Quarr Abbey and also with harpist Anne Denholm during the Harp on Wight Festival.

Poppy has enjoyed taking part in musicals; playing Cosette in Ryde School's Les Misérables and more recently as Arbiter in their outside rendition of Chess.

Away from singing, Poppy loves playing hockey, teaching sailing and is hoping to study biomedical engineering at university.
