

Soloist Profile: Treble: Noah Hemmings

Noah has been a chorister in Portsmouth Cathedral Choir since the age of 7.

He is currently Head Chorister and has enjoyed the opportunity to sing a wide and varied repertoire; he has toured with the Cathedral Choir to Belgium and Sweden, with a tour to Denmark planned for later this year.

Noah is a year 9 Music Scholar at the Portsmouth Grammar School and plays Double Bass, Bass Guitar and Jazz Piano.

He is a member of the school's jazz group, the Symphony Orchestra and percussion ensemble and has been a member of the National Children's Orchestra.

Noah is a keen cricketer and enjoys playing for Portsmouth Cricket Club as well as school teams.